Time: 20 minutes

QUESTIONS 1 – 20

For items 1-7 read the beginning of the following article about passing exams and think of a word which best fits each gap. Use only ONE word in each gap. There is an example at the beginning (0).

For items 8-14 continue reading the following article and mark each piece of advice (A-H) according to the stages of passing exams. The order of the letters within one stage does NOT matter. There is an example at the beginning (0).

How to pass exams

It's that time of year when students (0) across the country are gearing themselves up for exams. It's the most stressful time for any student, (1) _____ in high school, college or graduate school. Love them or hate them, it's hard to get (2) _____ from exams. All that preparation before the big day, a race against the clock as you sit at the desk, and the aftermath that sometimes feels (3) _____ stressful as the exam itself.

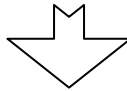

The time needed for a test taker to prepare for a test (4) _____ upon the significance of the test. In general, the tests that are short, frequent, and do not constitute a major portion of the test taker's grade do not require students to spend (5) _____ time preparing for them. Conversely, the tests that are long, infrequent, and strongly influence the test taker's grade usually require thorough preparation.

To prepare for an exam, students may rely upon their reference books, class or lecture notes, and the Internet. Test takers may also use various learning aids to study for tests. Effective preparation technique goes (6) _____ the exam hall. You'll never be stress-free (7) _____ the examination process, but you can limit it greatly by following this guide.

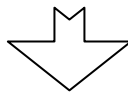

A	Don't study too late, especially the night before your exam. Tiredness will hinder your performance the next day. Always make sure you wind down before you go to bed.
B	On multiple-choice exam papers, go through and do all the easy questions first then go back to the beginning and try the tricky ones.
C	Eat well; have a proper meal rather than snacks stashed at your desk.
D	Get organized: draw up a revision timetable of topics to cover.
E	Remember what you are studying for. Why do you need these exams? Keeping your long-term goal in mind will help maintain your motivation.
F	Don't study for more than thirty to forty minutes at a time. Take regular breaks to get enough fresh air and stretch your legs .

G	On essay papers, tackle the questions you feel happiest about first, so you can build up your confidence.
H	Work out how much time you have for each question and pace yourself accordingly. You have nothing to gain from finishing early.

COUNTRY STUDIES

Time: 20 minutes

QUESTIONS 50 – 68

In 2016, four hundred years after Shakespeare's death, we celebrate the work and legacy of the greatest playwright in the English language. To mark this event, all the tasks in the Country Studies section are about William Shakespeare.

For items 50-53 read the sonnet below and answer the questions by choosing the correct alternative (A, B or C).

Shall I compare thee to a summer's day?
 Thou art more lovely and more temperate.
 Rough winds do shake the darling buds of May,
 And summer's lease hath all too short a date.

Sometime too hot the eye of heaven shines,
 And often is his gold complexion dimmed,
 And every fair from fair sometime declines,
 By chance, or nature's changing course untrimmed.

But thy eternal summer shall not fade,
 Nor lose possession of that fair thou ow'st,
 Nor shall death brag thou wander'st in his shade,
 When in eternal lines to time thou grow'st,

So long as men can breathe, or eyes can see,
 So long lives this, and this gives life to thee.

50.	What is the first quatrain about?	a.	Comparing the loved one to a summer's day
		b.	The fun of summer
		c.	The windiness of May
51.	How can the second quatrain be paraphrased?	a.	Gold is a valuable metal
		b.	The beauty of some things fades with time
		c.	It can get extremely hot in summer
52.	According to the second quatrain, how can people lose their beauty?	a.	Either as they become older or by accident
		b.	When they lose the loved ones
		c.	When the autumn comes

53.	What is the main topic of this poem?	a.	Nature isn't as beautiful as most people think
		b.	Beauty in nature fades, but the beauty of the loved one never will
		c.	Everything is beautiful in its own way
